KEYNOTE SPEAKER Ellen D. Lutz, USDOE

Ellen D. Lutz has been the Regional Director of the U.S. Department of Energy's (USDOE) Mid-Atlantic Regional Office since March 2002, covering the states of Delaware, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, and the District of Columbia. In that capacity, Ms. Lutz oversees the activities of US DOE's Office of Energy Efficiency and Renewable Energy, which includes over $40 million in funding annually for the development of clean energy technologies throughout the Mid Atlantic region. Having spent more than twelve years working in the energy industry, in the United States and the United Kingdom, Ms. Lutz brings a wealth of experience and insight to the Department of Energy and to Delaware's Residential Energy Summit.
